Our friend and author Patrik Baab traveled to Brussels to interview military analyst Jacques Baud, who was sanctioned by the EU without a hearing and due process. It was a deep conversation that should make any European citizen with a sense of justice feel depressed and angry.

Patrik Baab's excellent YouTube channel, “Gegen den Strom” (Against the Current), is well worth subscribing to.

The interview is in German, unfortunately, we lack the manpower to have translated it into English.
